DEFENSE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON WOMEN IN THE SERVICES ANNOUNCES THE 1994 APPOINTMENT OF NEW COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Secretary of Defense William Perry has selected the new members for the 1994 Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services (DACOWITS).

DACOWITS is composed of prominent civilian women and men throughout the United States representing the professions, industry and public service. Members are appointed for a three-year term, without compensation. Each member serves as an individual and not as an official representative of any group or organization.

The Committee was founded in 1951 by Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall during the Korean War to assist the Department of Defense in the recruitment and retention of servicewomen. During the ensuing 43 years, the Committee has provided advice to the Secretary of Defense on policies relating to the effective use of women in the Services.

The 1994 appointments are:

Mrs. Sally Sue Appel	Lake Geneva, Wisconsin
Mrs. Sharon E. Anderson	Seward, Alaska
Dr. Connie Lee Best	Mount Pleasant, South Carolina
Mrs. Beverly Butcher Byron	Fredrick, Maryland
Mrs. Ellen E. Conovitz	Great Neck, New York
Mr. Joseph B. Ezhaya	Waterville, Maine
Ms. Rosalind S. Fink	Brooklyn, New York
Ms. Nancy Lee Gregg	Falls Church, Virginia
Ms. Holly Kincade Hemphill	Arlington, Virginia
Mr. Lowell Johnston	New York, New York
Ms. Donna O. Kolb	Shaker Heights, Ohio
Ms. Margaret H. Marshall	Cambridge, Massachusetts
Ms. Betty Rivera	Albuquerque, New Mexico
Ms. Lynn Hecht Shafran	New York, New York
Ms. Carolyn Ellis Staton	Oxford, Mississippi
Dr. Niara Sudarkasa	Lincoln, Pennsylvania
Representative Jackie Eurn Hai Young	Kailua, Hawaii

The new committee members will begin their tenure with DACOWITS at the 1994 Spring Conference in Washington, D.C. this April.
